

BEN GREET PLAYERS COMING CHAUTAUQUA WEEK

engagement of the Ben Greet Players for another season of Chautauqua work is a notable step in advance for the platform. Thirteen players, personally coached by Ben Greet, will appear here during Chautauqua week in Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew." Mr. Greet is considered one of the greatest living authorities on the English drama and is world famous for his remarkable production of Shakespearean plays and old English comedies. He has been connected with the stage for thirty years and has taught many actors—perhaps more than any other man living today. The dramas presented by Ben Greet Players are given with the minimum stage effect. There is nothing to detract attention from the play. Every actor is experienced and competent, and each plays his part with the sole purport of the character as it should be. Absolutely correct diction and pronunciation are distinguishing characteristics of the Ben Greet Players. "The Taming of the Shrew" is considered one of the Shakespearean plays given by the Ben Greet, and Chautauqua patrons are assured a rare treat in this entertainment.

WADSWORTH

WADSWORTH—Word has been received that Mrs. Dayton Boyer, of Akron, who was formerly a Miss Rohn, of Wadsworth township, is dead, and the remains will be brought here for burial in Woodlawn cemetery.

Miss Marjorie Durling has returned from Bartlettville, Oklahoma, where she has been living with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Durling, and will make a six weeks' visit at the home of her friend, Miss Jessie Showers, of this place.

The women of the reformed church and guests of the northeast section were entertained at a lawn party at the home of D. H. Ricard, Friday.

Mrs. Thomas Birbeck and three children have left for their home in Tunnelton, W. Va.

A 17 to 0 score graphically describes what happened to the Wadsworth ball team when they met the Wise Furnace Co., of Akron, here Saturday afternoon. It tells that Wadsworth never had a look-in from the start to the finish. Their fielding was the worst they ever exhibited, and a total of two hits was the extent of their work with the stick.

Sincere regret was expressed by the many friends of Rev. N. W. Stroup when they learned of his death at St. Luke's hospital, Cleveland, on Friday night, as the result of an automobile accident on July 19. Rev. Mr. Stroup was superintendent of the Northwestern Ohio Methodist conference, and has frequently occupied the Wadsworth pulpit. He was 43 years of age, and had been educated at Drew Theological seminary, Madison, N. J., later taking post-graduate courses at Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, and Oxford university, England. Mrs. Stroup, who was with him at the time of the accident has not been informed of his death owing to her weakened condition, caused by amputation of her left leg on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chrisman and Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Chrisman of Warren, Pa., visited at the home of D. Chrisman, the latter part of the week. Dr. and Mrs. Chrisman and their guests attended the Chrisman family reunion at the home of Arthur Chrisman, at Copley Center, Saturday.

Mrs. Lloyd Hartzell and son, Hugh, who has been visiting her mother at Doyleston during the past week and attending the Chautauqua, has returned home.

Mrs. Josiah Ware of Johnson's Corners, visited in Wadsworth, Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Hackethorn and daughter, LaVonne, have returned from a few days' visit with relatives near Sterling.

Unfavorable weather prevented the union services being held in the park Sunday night, and the meeting was held in the Mennonite church. Rev. G. T. N. Beam of the reformed church delivered a forceful address before a large audience.

W. J. Swisher of New London, former publisher of the Wadsworth Banner, motored to Wadsworth Saturday, visiting at the home of E. L. Hocken-smith. He announces his intention of leaving New London in the near future to locate in Oberlin.

Mrs. F. M. Plank and Mrs. C. E. Hoover of Medina, visited friends here last week.

Miss Arline Harter and brother of Pittsburg are visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Yockey. They were formerly of this place.

The annual picnic of the Reformed church will be held one week from tomorrow at the Sharon camp meeting grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobson and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Dobson and son of Cleveland, Joseph Hirkbeck of England, and Mrs. George Harper of this place, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simester, Jr., Lincoln place.

Mrs. Dayton Boyer, a former resident of this place, was buried in the mausoleum of Woodlawn cemetery Monday morning.

B. Hillard is suffering from a fractured right wrist which he sustained when the crank of his automobile flew around and struck him while he was endeavoring to start the machine Sunday morning.

The annual reunion of the Birkbeck family, held at the home of John Birkbeck, Sr., two and one-half miles northwest of town Saturday, was a most enjoyable event. About 100 persons were present, of whom many were from Wadsworth.
